-- COOL'E TRAFFIC.

From an official notification in another part of this issue it will be seen that the Chinese Government, distinctly refuses to countenance coolle emigration to Brazil; and the Customs authorities have been instructed to publish a reminder that under the law any clandestine trade renders the vessel so engaged liable to forfeiture, together with her cargo. There is no uncertainty about : this, business was rightly Europeans and Chinese alike as an outrage, little short of kidnapping; for it was a deliberate and cunningly-planned trap for ignorant and poverty-driven coolles, Sir William Robinson, Governor of Hongkong, denounced it in only too polite terms; the late Governor of Macao. Capt. Da Bonja, equally politely protested, affecting surprise that the affeir could be so considered. But there is no longer room for him or anybody else to doubt what the Chinese think; and the Chinese will probably not make such a bungle of a better follow him,

The unfortunate juggler had done the trick too well this time, and he died in great agony within a few hours.

A WELL-KNOWN East Indian merchant tells the Manchester Guardian that the recent reduction by the Peninsular and Oriental Company of freights on twist or cotton from India to Japan is likely to have a prejudicial effect upon the Lancashire export trade. The freights in question have been reduced from seventeen to two rupees per ton. If the rupee be valued at fifteen pence, the reduction means that Bombay manufactured yarn will be conveyed from India to Japan (5,773 miles) at half-a-crown a ton, whereas the rate between London and Japan (11,60: miles) is thirty shillings a ton, in addition to tallway charges.

ACCORDING to the Yokohama Advertiser, Mr.

John McLean, Vice-Consul for the United States, on Tuesday night (13th) had a very painful experience and narrow escape from being suffocated or burnt to death. Mr McLean dined as usual at his residence, No. 206 Bluff, at about 7 o'clock, and a little before 8 o'clock retired to rest. When he retired, a fire was burning in the open grate in the bedroom, with a wire guard in front. It appears, however, that the guard or screen was not properly hooked on to the bars of the grate, and under the weight of some cinders from the top of the fire it fell to the floor, the burning cinders igniting the curtains of the bed, the foot of which was only about three feet from the fire-place. The fire appears to have run along the curtains of the bed from the foot to the head and communicated there with the window curtains and bed. When Mr. McLean swoke about 8.10 he found the curtains in a blaze, and burning embers dropping from the canopy over the bed He at once jumped up, and after shouting for his cook commenced testing down the blasing curtains, etc. The eff ct of the smoke in the room, however, was too much for him, and half asphixiated, he tried to find the door. With the exception of the flames from the burning draperles, however, there was no light in the room, and confused and helf unconscious from the smoke he had inhaled, Mr. McLean was unable to find the door. He then appears to have tried to seach one of the windows, with the idea of jumping out, but was unable to find the window. When the cook dashed into the room to response to his master's summons, about a minute after the fire had been discovered, he found Mr. McLean leaning his head against the wall in a corner between the fireplace and one of the windows, unable to walk without assistance. He dragged his master. out and then summoned aid ... In a few minutes Mr. C. V. Schmidt, who lives in the same compound, and a number of Japanese servants, etc. came to render assistance, and with a few buckets of water the burning drapertes; and bed clothes were extinguished. The paper of the wall behind the head of the bed and on the ceiling was burnt, and the wood-work of the damage was done to the building. Mr. McLean soon recovered from his semi-suffocation on being taken into the fresh sir, but in his attempt to put out the fire he had received some rather nasty burns on the feet and some blisters on his hands. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Tripler the same night, and it is believe he will be able to get about again by the end of the week. The amount of damage to bedding, draperies, etc. by the fire is estimated by Mr. McLean at about The house and furniture are partially

ANCE SOCIETY. The 8th anniversary of the Missions to Seamen Branch of the above Society was held last Mr. Mac's w. Exchange, 11st. 118. Mr. Taylor D. Point. The chair was taken by the Rev. A. G. Goldsmith, and addresses were given by the Mr. Magpie's g. Swift, rost, glb. Mr. Hart Buck of Rev. T. W. Pearse (London Mission). Mr. The Chairman in the course of his remarks sald :- There are two ways of regarding Temperance work. The first is to regard it as a method of rescuing men from an intemperate life, the second is to regard it as a means for creating a healthy public opinion in favour of Temperance. In view of the fact that there are thousands which have lost their moral control over themselves elther through inheriting the drink craving onthrough a long course of drinking habits, some thing has to be done. Total aberinence is the short and easy method and the only cure for this state of things. With regard to the other point, public. opinion requires to be educated. There are some who say that they will abstala altogether from, intericating drinks for the sake of their weaker brethren. In England gs total abstaining mayors met together not long since at a public meeting. Undoubtedly there men are total abstalaers for example's sake. There can be no doubt that each of these gentlemen will exercise an infloence and be the means of creating a public opinion in favour of Tens perance, Again there are others who while seeing necessity of reform in the national habits of our country in the matter of indulgance in strong drink, yet from ill benith or other reasons is to help the drunkard to leave the habit which has become his curse; or to urge upon all friends of reform to do their utmostin the name of God to combat the evil which is so largely due to the excessive use of intoxicants. We require more prayer. We need that our methods should be based upon reliance in God. We do not want to make total abstainers only, but good Christians - temperate in all things.

The Rev. T. W. Pearse delivered an excellent address which he divided into three heads :- 1. Congratulation. - 2. Explanation. 3. Counsel. He congratulated the Society on attaining its 8th anniversary and was pleased to understand from the report, that so large a number as 2700 had become members since its formation. By way of explanation he said he was proud to be a member of the historic London Mission with its associations with such names as Williams and Livingstone. He pointed out how Temperance work had been found necessary in year. some cases amongst the South Sea Islanders to having been introduced, alas! by white men. He maintained that Temperance was to be used means to an end, and not as the end itself. He proported an incident which had come under his own personal observation in England a few months ago showing how intemperance amongst our own countrymen was regarded by even such a nation as China, A Chinaman, one of the suite attached to the Chinese Ambassador in London, had been shown round the university of Oxford. After admiring the ancient buildings. he said that his country could show nothing so great as this; but he asked how was it, with all our greatness, that Englishmen should be so given to intoxication; on landing for the first time on the shores of England he had come £119,578,551. across no less than 16 men drunk in the public street i By way of counsel, the speaker urged upon these present who had not yet joined the being improved. Society, to do so. He did not believe their health would suffer, for more premature deaths were caused by the use of alcohol than by its disuse and they had the doctors on their side in this respect. In conclusion he would have them remember that total abstinence did not disparage the grace of God.

17th February 1894. After patiently waiting for over two months for the long promised burlesque-"Lord Lovell and Nancy Bell "-it is to come off to-night, and it is gossipped that two more performances will be given later on. There has not been nearly so much amusement here this winter as last, probably due to the low exchange. The Masonic Body gave a ball on the 2nd, when they invited nearly the whole community, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, for it was blowing a bitterly cold gale from the N.E. that evening, they did not all respond, so t'ere were not quite so many present as on former occasions; but needless to say, the evening went off without a hitch. The dances were gone through with great spirit and those present enjoyed, themselves thoroughly, and it is only hoped that we may have another dance before the warm weather sets in. The Gasife arrived from Hongkong on the 15th. After loading about 700 tons of ten she left for America. The American sailing ship Challenger left to-day for Swatow after discharging 42,000 cases of kerosene oil, carrying on the remainder, 10,134 cases to that port.

The Benvenue arrived from your post this morning. She will load about 1,000 tons of tea for New York, but probably will not get away before Monday or Tuesday of next week. The English steamer Foyle arrived this morning with a cargo of about 60,000 cases of keresens oil from Batoum, via Swatow, where some 10,000 cases were discharged. She will only leave port of her cargo here, and take the semainder to Foochow.

The Pingching left for your port, via Northern lighthouses, on the 16th at noon. Steamers in port are the Benvenue: Foyle, Wuotan, Formosa, Halloong, and Pekin. The only sailing vessel here is the small Norwegian schooner Sylphiden.-Shangkal Mercury.

will own all they can raise, but have no exclusive right to the land. The Paris Prefect of Police has warned women cyclists that the new "rational" cycling costume which they have donned infringes the law against women wearing men's clothes. They must dress differently. Emperor William has taken steps to have the mile produced on his farms at Poisdam sold in Berlin. Carts bearing his name may be seen

MRS. CALAP GOES TO SEE MRS. MILLS.

And it was not for an hour's chat over a cup of tee that she went to see her, but on a much more serious matter, For Mrs. Mills had been quoted in the newsthe newspapers print so many things that nobody can make head or tall of that Mrs. Calsp thought the only sure way was to go and see Mrs. Mills and ask her if it was true what was said. What Mrs. Mills told her is contained in the annexed statement made about a year afterwards: "I, Jane Calap, of 8, Vincent Street, York Road, Leads, do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows :-"In the serie part of November, 1887, I fall into a low, week state. I was tired, languid, and weary, bones schod and I had so much pain that I did not know where to put myself. I was constantly vomiting; sometimes a green, bitter fluid came away, at other times frothy water. I had a dull, heavy pain at the right side, the whites of my eyes were a Yellow colour. and my skin was sallow as if I had the jaundice. had an awful taste in the mouth, my tongue and teeth being covered with slime so thick that I had to The annual civil list or salary paid to King scrape it away. My appetite fell away, and after numbers of Italy is about $3,000 coo. pain that it nearly killed me. I had always great pain and weight at my chost and through to my back, also a gnawing, sinking sensation at the pit of my stomach. I was greatly troubled with wind which rolled all over ma, and gave me so much pain it was like spasms, for I could not straighten myself. gradually got weaker, and weaker, and folt so weak and exhausted that I could searcely drag myself along. As time went on I wasted away until I got as thin as a match, and sould barely walk across the floor, I felt so downhearted that I used to say I should never got better any more in this world. 'I took all kinds of medicines, but finding myself getting worse I got a recommendation to the Leeds Infirmary, where I was attended to by several doctors, who gave me medicines, General Kodalitsch, one of the companions of | which I took month after month, but I got no better. the unfortunate Maximilian, died recently in San | The doctors sounded my chest and lungs, and seemed pussled with my sufferings, for they frequently changed my medicine. Getting no better I next went to the Dispensary in North Street, and persevered taking their medicines, but it was all to no purpose. I now gave up taking physic, for I had lost all faith in it, and my suffering continued until January, 1891, when I heard of a neighbour of mine, Mrs. Ann Mills, 40, Bread Street, having been sured (after the doctors had given her up) by a medicine called Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup. I went with my daughter to see Mrs. Mills, who told mothat Seigel's Syrup had saved her life, and would do me good. I got a bottle of the medicine, and after taking a few doses I felt relief. continued with the Syrup, and after taking three bottles all the pain left me, my food agreed with me of the Bank of England, and says that they are and I gradually gained strength. I can now take any kind of food and never feel any distress and am as strong as ever I was. After my recovery a lady constomer of mine said to me 'Mrs. Calap, whatever have you been taking, for you do look so well." told her, as I tell everyone, that Seigel's Syrup has made me a new woman, and but for it I should not be slive. I wish others to know of the benefit I have derived from the medicine, and I give full permission to the Proprietors to use this statement as they may think fit, and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true. By virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declaration Act, 1835 (Will IV. c. 62)"

"Declared before me at Leeds this "25th day of January, 1892." JANE CALAR. " (Signed) ALF COOKE, J. P.

" Kx-Mayor of Leeds." The public may remember the account of Mrs. Mills' illness and recovery, published some time ago. We are glad that Mrs. Calap heard of it and went straight to that lady herself for the information she wanted. The visit resulted just as might have been expected. Both our good friends had suffered from the same disease, indigestion and dyspepsis, and the remedy which cured in the first case was equally necessful in that of her neighbour. No wonder Mrs. Calap had lost all faith in physic, and if Mother Seigel's Syrup were "physic," we should not look for people to have faith in it either. But it is a remedy, not " physic." It doesn't upset and disgust, it soothes and heals. Men fall ill, to be sure, but seemen bear most of the pain in this sad world, and when once acquainted they and "Mother Seigel are 'ever' the best of friends," like Joe and Pifs in Dickens' story. —[Advi.

IF the sufferers from Consumption, Scrofula and General Debility will try Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and a permanent benefit. The Medical Profession in the various countries of the world universally declare it a remedy of the greatest value, and as it is very palatable it can be readily taken by the most sensitive stomach, and will never fall to give relief and comfort to the sufferer.
